The musical score is written for piano and consists of six systems, each with a grand staff (treble and bass clefs). The key signature is two flats (B-flat and E-flat), and the time signature is 2/2. The music is characterized by dense chordal textures and some melodic fragments in the right hand. There are several handwritten annotations: a 'p' (piano) dynamic marking in the first system, a 'p' in the second system, and a 'p' in the fifth system. There are also some handwritten notes and markings, including a circled 'V' in the fifth system and a circled 'V' in the sixth system. The score ends with a double bar line and repeat dots.

The image shows a handwritten musical score for piano, titled "Arrependida" by Aurélio Cavalcanti. The score is written on six systems, each consisting of two staves (treble and bass clef). The key signature is B-flat major. The notation includes various musical symbols such as notes, rests, and dynamic markings. The piece concludes with the instruction "D. C. al Fine".
